Announcing Scott's 8th Annual Grandparents' Day Tuesday, November 26, 2013

We would like to have all of our Scott students' grandparents join us for our 8th annual celebration of Grandparents' Day on Tuesday, Nov. 26, from 8:00 AM until after lunch. We are offering a special book fair for our grandparents in the library from 8:10 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Other activities will include refreshments for grandparents; pictures of grandchildren and grandparents; visits to your grandchildren's classrooms; and an opportunity to have lunch with your grandchildren. Please ask your grandchild for the invitation that will go home November 1st.

Reading is the most important skill you can teach a child. Of all the skills kids learn, it is the one you can influence the most.

We invite you to visit our Scholastic Book Fair and experience a celebration of reading that provides families the opportunity to get involved in a universal mission: encouraging kids to read every day so they can lead better lives.

Our Book Fair is part of a reading event that brings to school a wonderful selection of fun, engaging, and affordable books kids want to read. Giving kids access to good books and the opportunity to choose books will motivate them to read more. And like most acquired skills, the more kids practice reading, the better they'll get.

Please make plans to visit our Book Fair.

Book Fair Date: November 26, 2013

Shopping Hours: 8:10am- 4:30pm

If you're all booked up during Book Fair week be sure to visit the Book Fair online at www.scholastic.com/fair. Our Online Fair is available for an extended time from November 25th to November 26th, 2013.
